The C.A.M. 44th Annual Santacruzán Festival brings back “CUDA Culture’s Street Fest Throw Down: Bboy/Bgirl Competition & Special Exhibitions”

Jersey City, NJ, May 29, 2022 – CUDA Culture returns with the 44th annual Santacruzán Festival to bring breaking back to the streets of Jersey City on Sunday, May 29, 2022. The breakdance competition will be held on the corner of 4th street and Manila Avenue, from 10 a.m. – 6 p.m. There will be cash prizes and other give-aways for the winners. Competitors can sign up for the youth and adult brackets by emailing CUDA at cudacultureinfo@gmail.com, subject line: Street Fest Throw Down. Competitors are encouraged to sign up by email to secure their spot.

For CUDA, taking part in the Santacruzán festival has become a tradition for over a decade. Attendees will be immersed in both old school and new school Hip Hop music and dancing, view live street art in progress, witness an exciting martial arts exhibition, and get a chance to partake in a live yoga session. The Santacruzán festival will surely fill up the Manila Avenue block, from First Street to Fourth Street, with lots of traditional and modern Filipino dishes and treats, as well as a wide array of activities and music that celebrate Flores de Mayo as part of the Filipino culture.

The breaking competition will be hosted by Jersey City b-girls and artists, G.I. Jane and Empress J*La-Rok. For more details on CUDA’s special guests and features, see flyer attached.
